

Our Master of Arts in Social Change (MASC) is one of the oldest programs of its kind.

This professional, two-year degree program prepares students to become transformative leaders and agents of sacred social change.

Connect With Us!

Meet With Admissions

Request Info

sksm.edu/requestinfo

Send a Message

sksm.edu/connect

Make a Gift

sksm.edu/donate

Follow Us on Social Media

@SKSMsocial

starr
king

school for the ministry

Master of Arts
in Social Change

www.sksm.edu

Starr King's MASC degree specializes in:

- Anti-oppression work, including racial, gender, & LGBTQ+ justice
- Global economics and economic justice
- Restorative or transformative justice
- Immigration issues
- Moral injury and war
- Environmental justice
- Fostering democratic community
- And more

The MASC program aims to foster your personal growth, spiritual practice, and deepened commitment to social justice. Graduates of our program leave prepared for spiritually-grounded leadership in organizations, institutions, movements, and communities that work for progressive social change.

Start Your Application at sksm.edu/apply