

North Parish of North Andover, Massachusetts Unitarian Universalist (UU) Church is seeking a part-time Religious Education Program Coordinator for 14 hours per week, 42 weeks per year. Sunday hours from 9am to 12pm with one Sunday off per month. The balance of weekly hours are flexible, with the exception of a weekly staff meeting. Additional hours working with our youth may be available.

You will be supporting our UU Religious Education programming for children from preschool through high-school-aged youth, and their families. You'll work closely with the Director of Family Religious Education. North Parish is a mid-size, vibrant congregation and our ideal candidate for this position will have excellent organizational skills, have the ability to help all families feel welcome and cared for, and be able to work both independently and collaboratively as part of a team.

If you have a passion for children's ministry and a desire to make the world a better place, please send your cover letter and resume to personnel@northparish.org. Please direct inquiries to dre@northparish.org.
